

COI General Forum

Operating Rules and Parameters

Vision & Goal

The Forum Goal is: to "Restore the broken down Tabernacle of David by promoting peaceful reconciliation between the 2 divided Factions in the Nation of the God of Israel; to promote the re-establishment of the re-united 12-Tribed Nation of Israel". We strive to reunite across a 2,700 year Family Feud. Let us build on new foundations of UNITY.

The Goal of this Forum is to share discussions, ideas, questions and guidelines for promoting and achieving peaceful Reconciliation between traditional Torah Judaism (referred to in Scripture as 'The House of Judah' and the fast evolving phenomenon of a Global turning towards Torah observance and pro-Israelism by non-Jews – a Movement referred to as 'Ephraim', Yoseph or 10-Israel i.e. the exiled Northern 10 Tribes of Israel referred to in Scripture as 'The House of Israel'.

Your participation

Please bear in mind that the members this Forum are all spiritually well experienced and advanced, and widely spread over various faiths – though united on the following important factors:

- ✓ Their love for the Creator God of Israel, His Word and the Land of Israel and Jerusalem;
- ✓ Their passion for promoting Peace amongst God's People and all humanity, Tikkun Olam (healing of the Universe);
- ✓ Their zeal for the Divine Purpose, as defined in Scripture, of establishing His Universal Kingdom in Jerusalem;
- ✓ Their longing for uniting as His People.

All are welcome to comment, ask and participate – but within the stated parameters please which will be emphasized and re-emphasized as we proceed. We all have much to share and much to benefit from mature deliberations.

Guidelines and parameters – IMPORTANT

It is vital that you acquaint yourself with these guidelines BEFORE you post to this Forum:

- We have a unique discussion panel here of both Judah and Ephraim / Yoseph – something like when Yosef met first with his brothers in Egypt after years of separation. So, let us watch our tongues and the topics that we present. Yosef had ONE thing in mind: to RESTORE the Family.

- This Forum IS for any ideas and guidelines that can inspire and advance Family Restoration and Unity.
- This Forum is NOT for theological doctrinal issues, Prophecy analysis, political fear mongering, or confrontational opinions or suggestions – bearing in mind that Truth itself is highly confrontational to those who oppose it or who are not yet acquainted with it.

The foundational framework of this forum and this Vision is based on the Golden Rule for reconciliation: To agree to disagree.

This does not suggest a free for all religious foundation. The fact that YOU belong to this Forum, means that you are at a far advanced stage towards the Divinely ordained Final Redemption requirements – far enough to apply this Rule of Peace. COI's Sources of Reconciliation Guidance (which are all featured on the COI Web Site) define all these guidelines very comprehensively.

Here is a list of Links which every forum member should be well acquainted with in order to maintain the right non-confrontational spirit for reconciliation. PLEASE read ALL these guidelines and raise any questions or objections that you may have. We would greatly appreciate your close representation on this basis.
